

Entrepreneurship: Behavioral and Cognitive Approaches Workshop - ECBA 2019

Date: 12-13 September, 2019

Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, Centre d'Economie de la Sorbonne

The Centre d'Économie de la Sorbonne will organize the 3rd workshop on behavioral and cognitive approaches in entrepreneurship. The workshop aims to bring together researchers working on entrepreneurial decision-making, formation of firms and entrepreneurship. These topics are meant in a broad sense and researchers focusing on broader issues that have applications in entrepreneurial contexts are encouraged to submit a paper.

We welcome contributions from economics, psychology, neuroscience, finance and management science but also from other disciplines such as sociology, linguistics or history, with an empirical, theoretical or methodological perspective. Topics may include:

- Cognitive and behavioral biases, including entrepreneurs' bias
- Behavioral finance and behavioral strategy, including entrepreneurial finance
- Economic development, firm formation, financing of business firms
- Experimental research in entrepreneurship research
- Psychology, cognition, and entrepreneurship
- Entrepreneurial team, team work and group rationality
- Methodological issues in behavioral and cognitive approaches in entrepreneurship

The workshop will be built around different sessions types: Full paper sessions and PhD sessions. Submissions can take several forms: Full papers, working papers and extended abstracts.

The European Journal of Finance will publish a selection of papers presented at the conference. Further details will be sent to authors after the meeting. The editors for the special issue will be Béatrice Boulu-Reshef and Richard Fairchild.

Proposals can be submitted before June 30, 2019. Authors of accepted papers will be notified on July 15, 2019. There is no workshop fee.

We look forward to welcoming you in Paris. For further questions, contact the organizer: beatrice.boulu-reshef@univ-paris1.fr
